JESS BLACK

and it involves CATS!

Jess Black is touring Australia with Kitty is Not a Cat, bringing to schools a delightful and educative author session. This is a new funny junior-fiction series about a gutsy girl protagonist living in an adult-free world, learning what it means to be human from a group of kind-hearted but ill-informed cats. The series deals with topics which kids of this age will really relate to such as being afraid of the dark, having a pet, screen addictions and diverse families!

Jess Black uses images, storytelling, activities, characterisation and improvisation to help kids create and share their own stories. Her talks leave children excited about the power of books and the joys of reading!
